

TUBERCULOSIS

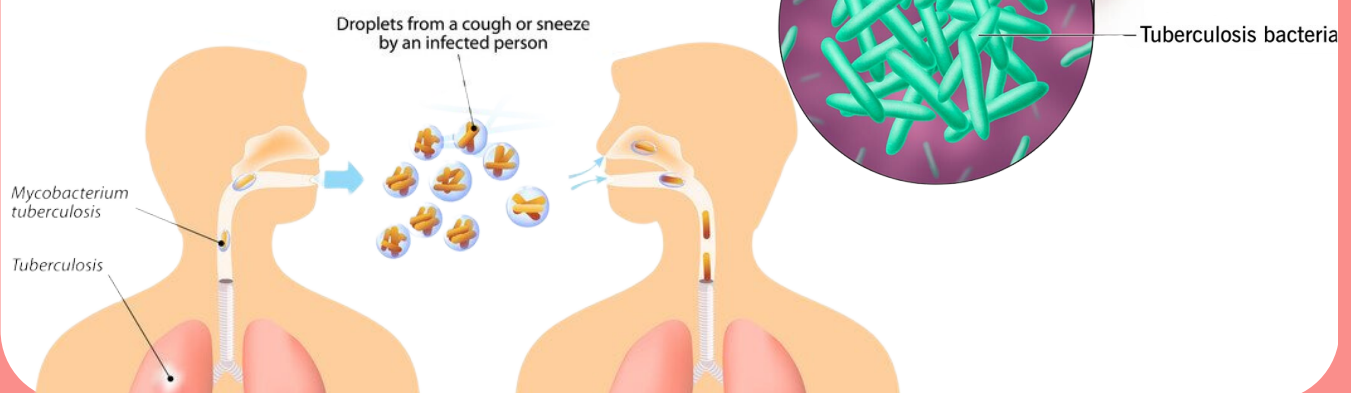

What is Tuberculosis ?

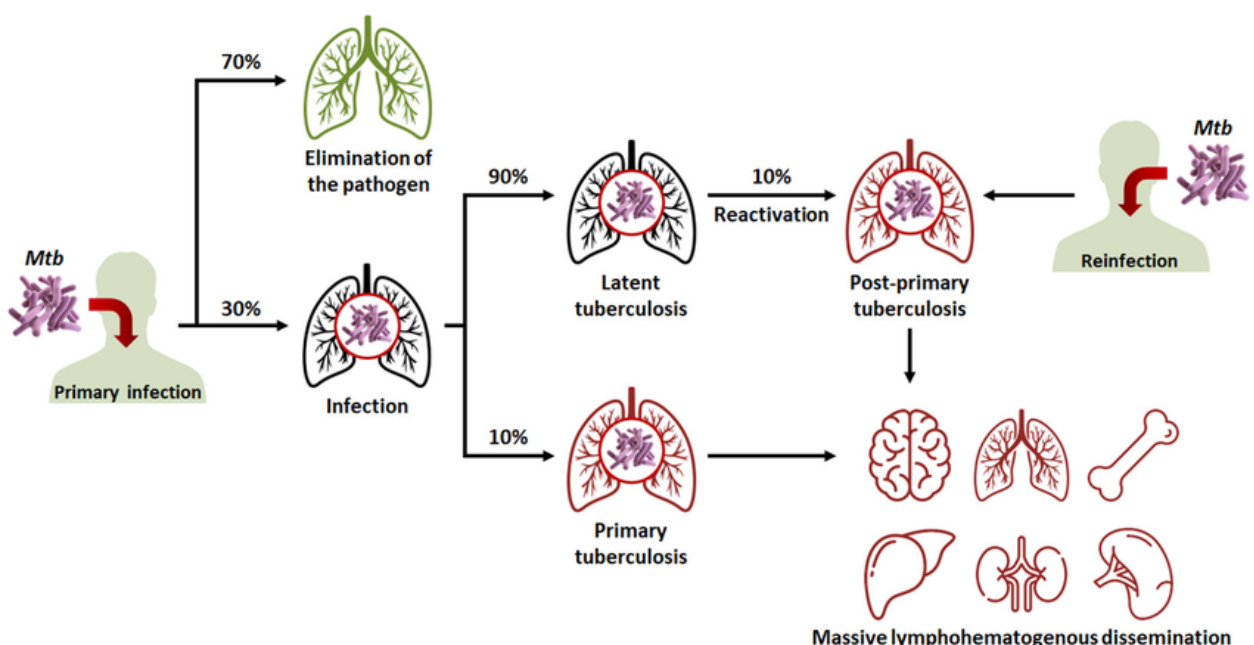

Tuberculosis is an infectious disease that can cause infection in your lungs or other tissues. The word “tuberculosis” comes from a Latin word for "nodule" or something that sticks out.

What causes Tuberculosis ?

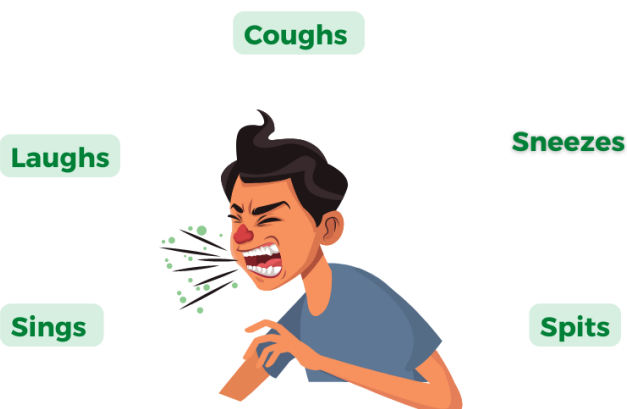

The bacteria that cause tuberculosis is Mycobacterium tuberculosis. It is able to multiply every 15-20 hours, aerophilic and able to survive in dry environment for weeks.

What are the stages of TB ?

How it can be spread ?

What are the symptoms ?

